- Write down your username and password
- Click “Save and Continue”

Judges Preferences

- Select your top three category preferences
- Agree to the Conflict of Interest Statement

Permissions and Waivers

- The system will not move forward without answers to all parts, there is an NHD mandated part of the registration process.

Registration Completed!

Username and Password

- Your username will be shown once more to make sure that you have it.
- If you did not change the username on the first registration page, then the system automatically generates of First Name, Last Name username (Example: AdamSmith)
- You should receive an email shortly indicating that your registration is complete, and once again list your username. If you used a company or school district email, then you will probably want to check your filtered or Barracuda folder.

Judges will be able to go (upper right corner) to the log in page and immediately sign into the program. When you log in, it should immediately take you to the Judge's Main tab.

Judge information and resources will be posted to the Judge Tab, along with the more traditional Judge Orientation presentation materials.

There is a drop-down menu at the top, and the projects will be assigned through the Judge Portal. Detailed instructions and more information will be posted as we approach the competition dates.
